

provides an inspirational and relevant curriculum taught to a high standard promotes good behaviour, attendance and punctuality through praise, encouragement and respect believes everyone has the right to contribute through listening and sharing ideas

Osmaston Primary School believes everyone has the right to succeed and become a lifelong learner encourages parents and the community to work in partnership is a happy, healthy and caring school where everyone feels safe

